

Number Formation practice 01.02.21

Today we are also going to practice our number formation starting with zero. In class we use this ditty to help remind the children how to write the digit.

"Around and round we go, when we get home we have a zero."

Please look at the class webpage for a poster for all the number formation ditties.

