

Number Formation practice 04.02.21

Today we are also going to practice number three. In class we use this ditty to help remind the children how to write the digit.

"Around the tree, around the tree. That's how we make a three."

Please look at the class webpage for a poster for all the number formation ditties.

