LO: To write how the giant was feeling.

Jack and the Beanstalk

Watch and listen to the story Jack and The Beanstalk on the class webpage again.

Do you think Jack was right to take the harp and hen from the giant?

Have a think and then share with your adult?

Write your answer yes or no

Was Jack right to take the harp and hen _____

How would you feel if Jack took something that belonged to you? Do you think you would feel happy? Sad? Cross? Angry? Have a think and tell your adult.

Write what the giant might say to you if you asked him how he was feeling.

You will start this by writing "I feel" and then the emotion.

Support your child to write "I feel" and then to Fred Talk the sounds and then write the sounds for the emotion. Phonetically spell the word. (The red word is how the child would spell phonetically).

Support them with writing two on a piece of paper or in their book and then let them write the last one by themselves - in the giants speech bubble - using the two sentences they have already written to help.

I feel cross - I feel cross or cross

I am upset - I feel upset

I feel angry - I feel angree
