

Number Formation practice 11.02.21

Today we are also going to practice number eight. In class we use this ditty to help remind the children how to write the digit.

"Make an 's' and do not wait. When it's joined up you have an eight."

Please look at the class webpage for a poster for all the number formation ditties.

