

Thursday 21st January LO: Describe settings - Please watch input video on dojo / website first

Thinking about how the town mouse's city was described using all his senses and with such powerful language, describe all the things that the country mouse might be missing about his home, think about the things he would see, hear, taste, feel and smell in the country. You might write or type your own descriptions into your book / onto word or you might want to use the sentence stems below.

In the country, I miss the sight of

---

---

---

In the country, I miss the sound of

---

---

---

In the country, I miss the smell of

---

---

---

In the country, I miss the taste of

---

---

---

In the country, I miss the feeling of

---

---

---