LO: Explore a story (WOW morning)

Today we are going to read and share a new book. To prepare for this you need the following..

- A delicious piece of jam on toast (if you are not a jam fan, choose a different topping)
- Your favourite cuddly toy
- A cosy place to listen and enjoy a story

Ready?

Now follow the link and listen to our new story 'Little White Owl' by Tracey Corderoy and illustrated by Jane Chapman.

Now does the jam on toast make sense?!

Extra activities:

To help you explore the story further you can spend the remainder of the lesson trying some of these other activities:

- Make a paper plate little white owl
- Create an owl based snack
- colour in your own owl
- Learn how to draw a barn owl.
- Research snowy owls
- Or an owl based activity of your choice

The activities above will be uploaded to the class page on the website.
