WORLD BOOK DAY!

Woohoo it is world book day but with a difference...no costumes parents!

However, feel free to dress up in your favourite book character at home and send us a picture!

The main focus of today is all about 'Sharing a story' so make sure you take lots of photos and share your reading throughout the day.

Starter:

Follow the link and listen to the official world book day rap. <https://www.worldbookday.com/mc-grammar/>

How many book titles can you spot in the rap? Make a list of them here:

Don't forget to spend your world book day voucher. You have until the 28th March to use it.

Main activities:

Here is a list of activities for you to choose from. Please select at least 2 to complete during your English lesson. Activities will be uploaded to the website for you to choose from.

- From 10.30 -11.00 join the live world book day event with, year 2, the author of the Christmasaurus Tom Fletcher! <https://www.worldbookday.com/event/words-pictures-bring-reading-to-life/>
- Have a go at the 'Are you a reading star?' game
- Go on a character scavenger hunt
- Design a new book cover for your favourite book
- Create your own book rap including titles of your favourite stories
- Follow the instructions to make your own folded book (I really like the idea of making a house shaped book!)

Head to the world book day website for even more ideas of how you can participate even at home.

Most importantly spend time today exploring books and reading, share a story with everybody and anybody – your pets and cuddly toys love listening to you read. So have a fantastic day and remember to share whatever you get up to.
