WALT: Acrostic with a difference.

You all know how to write acrostic poems with the letters of your topic down the side like this:

Paper is ready.
Eraser on the end.
Need a sharpener now.
Colour of the night.
I use it every day.
Let me be creative.

Now look at how the theme 'RIVER' has been created in this poem:

River Run

Run river run:
sIver over stones
riVer sobs and moans;
briEf gleam in the sun:
riveR run and run.

Run River run
rapId to the seas;
riVer leap with ease,
tEasing just for fun:
River run and run.

Challenges:

1. Write a normal style acrostic poem about a RIVER or STREAM. Perhaps the RIVER TONE, or a famous river like the AMAZON...

OR

2. Create an acrostic poem with the word RIVER or WATER flowing through it. Make the letters of the theme obvious- maybe in a different colour. You could type this to make it stand out.
