

Optional Home Learning Challenges – Tawny Owls and Woodpecker Class

Autumn Term One

'My Secret War Diary' by Marcia Williams and 'Rose Blanche' by Ian McEwan and Roberto Innocenti (Illustrator).

What was life like for children in Britain during World War 2 ?

You can choose how you would like to present your homework.
We are looking forward to seeing your homework completed to a high standard.

Present World War 2 in numbers e.g. create a graph comparing the size of armies from different nations.	Design a WW2 propaganda poster.	Research and make a WW2 rationing recipe.	Write a descriptive piece about an air raid.	Write a biography of a famous person associated with WW2.
Research how WW2 affected your family or the local area.	Create your own model tank or gas mask.	Write a war based poem.	Draw and label an aeroplane from WW2 e.g. Spitfire.	Write a song to keep people's spirits up during the war.