LO: Setting description

Use what you have learnt about metaphors, personification and prepositional phrases to write a setting description. Use the useful vocabulary to help you.

Imagine that a Viking is preparing to sail from Norway to Britain not knowing when he will return. He is looking around him and trying to take in all the scenery so he can remember his homeland.

You might want to start with this sentence opening.

Guthrum stood on the mountain side above his small village and gazed down into the spectacular valley.
