Today you are going to complete your story and you have a choice about what might happen. You can:

- Follow the story as set out in the film where the villagers come to the Lighthouse keeper's aid and disaster is averted

Or

- Come up with an alternative ending. This could still end in a positive result or you might want to it to end with the ship striking the rocks and ending in disaster.

This website shows the original film but at the bottom of the page is another film about a lighthouse with an alternative resolution: <https://www.literacyshed.com/the-lighthouse.html>

 	He thinks and turns to look at the village far below and realises he needs the villager's help. Quickly, he runs down the stairs. As he opens the door he sees all the villagers coming up, carrying torches and lanterns, to help.
 	Just in the nick of time, the ship sees the lights from the villagers' torches and veers to the right, narrowly missing the sharp jagged rocks beneath the cliffs.

Continuing from yesterday:

Awkwardly scrambling to his feet, he darted for the door. The spiral staircase seemed endless as he careered recklessly down the well-worn steps, his fears about the ship increasing with every second. Heart beating rapidly, he finally reached the door. As he hastily flung it open he couldn't quite believe the sight that befell him...
