

Home Learning Challenges – Otters and Squirrels Class

Spring Term 1

Are We There Yet? A look at transport during the Industrial Revolution

Book: 'The Iron Man' by Ted Hughes and class read: 'Voyage of the Sparrow Hawk' by Natasha Farrant

This home learning is optional.

You can choose how you would like to present it.

We are looking forward to seeing your learning completed to a high standard.

Research one of the first trains ever made called 'The Rocket'. This was created by Robert Stephenson.	Make a list of the fastest trains in the world	Write a book review of The Iron Man by Ted Hughes and publish on Purple Mash	Create a painting or drawing in the style of Lowry
Draw or paint an image of a steam engine or canal barge	Go for a walk along a canal with your family – take some pictures of the things you see along the way	The Iron man is huge. Make a list of the tallest structures in the world. How can you present the data?	Research what the Victorian era was like for children. What is similar? What is different to the present day?