

Spring 1 - Otters and Squirrels

Pre-learning task

Next half term our question will be:

'Are We There Yet?'

which explores the growth of transport, especially canals and trains, during the Industrial Revolution. We will be using these books to support our learning:

We are also having an arts week when we first come back after Christmas which is based on the theme of 'I can.' We will be looking at different dances from around the world and also exploring the work of artist Georgia O'Keeffe. Later we will look at the works of L.S. Lowry.

In preparation for this new topic, please research and look at some of the work of the artists above. Find a picture you like and see if you can recreate it.

We look forward to seeing your learning completed to a high standard. Here are some examples:
