Demonstrative Pronouns and Adjectives – This, That, These, Those

Have a look at the web site: https://www.grammar.cl/Notes/This_That_These_Those.htm

And watch the video as well for a brief overview about how the pronouns, this, that, these, and those work, both as demonstrative pronouns and as demonstrative adjectives.

Demonstrative pronouns point out a person, place, thing, or idea.

This, That, These, Those are called demonstratives and they are used to show the relative distance between the speaker and the noun.

Demonstrative Pronouns

We use this (singular) and these (plural) to refer to something that is here / near.

Examples:

- This is my car. (singular)
- These are our children. (plural)

We use that (singular) and those (plural) to refer to something that is there / far.

Examples:

- That is our house. (singular)
- Those are my shoes. (plural)

Note that the verb changes (i.e. singular / plural) depending on the pronoun that you use.

You can also use Demonstrative Pronouns by themselves:

- Did you do that?
- I'd like to buy these?
- Which of those would you like?

Demonstrative Adjectives

You can also use demonstratives before a noun. These are called demonstrative adjectives.

The Demonstrative Adjective needs to agree (= be the same form) as the noun.

Examples of demonstrative adjectives:

- This party is boring. (singular)
- That city is busy. (singular)
- These chocolates are delicious. (plural)
- Those flowers are beautiful. (plural)

Summary - What is the difference between Demonstrative Adjectives and Demonstrative Pronouns?

Demonstrative Adjectives and Demonstrative Pronouns use the same words. The easiest way to know that difference is that Demonstrative Adjectives are always before a noun while Demonstrative Pronouns are before a verb or by themselves.

- This book is old. (Demonstrative Adjective + Noun)
- This is new. (Demonstrative Pronoun + Verb)
- Did you like that? (Demonstrative Pronoun by itself)

Here's a poster which helps to remind you how they are used:

They also have the ability to climb up ladders and vines. When they're within 3 blocks of a player, creepers will hiss and flash before exploding. These are nasty mobs!
