4. What does Beverley mean when she says 'fiction is a good way of exploring reality'.

By using stories you can tell people what happens in the real world but can play about with reality to make it more engaging and exciting.

5. How did Beverley feel about her upbringing and how has that made her the person she is today ?

She felt angry that she was part of the problem and as she grew older felt she had to do something about it. By writing books she can show what has happened and what is still happening in South Africa.
