

Monday 11th January

LO: Comprehension

We Have Arrived!

AD787

After an arduous journey across the North Sea, we have finally reached our destination – England. The feeble, afraid Englishmen tried to cease us but we were too powerful and fought our way, as brutally as was necessary, onto the green and lush land.

We are here to find treasures (and probably steal them) before we return to our homes in Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

Our first raid was of the monastery at Lindisfarne, which was not very well

81 protected and contained

85 valuable goods like gold

88 and jewels, imported

92 foods and other useful

95 materials for trade.

99 England is more pleasant

103 and lucrative than we

104 thought!

Retrieval

- 1) Where did the Vikings come from ?
- 2) What three different types of things did the Vikings steal from Lindisfarne ?

Words in context

- 3) Find and copy a word which means 'produce lots of money'.
- 4) Find and copy two adjectives which are antonyms of each other.

Inference

- 5) How does the Viking's view of England change ?