

Tuesday 6th July

Shared Reading answers

1. What do the acid and enzymes in the stomach do ?

break down the food

2. What is the porridge like substance, the food is broken down to in the stomach, called ?

chyme

3. Why might the stomach juices need to kill bacteria ?

They could possibly make you ill.

4. Find and copy an example of punctuation for parenthesis.

(which is a stretchy sack shaped like a letter J)

(pronounced: en-zymes)

(which doesn't look like food anymore)

5. What do you think the author means when they use the word 'goodness' ?

The things in the food (nutrients) which your body needs to ensure it works.