When Is Palm Sunday?

Why Is Palm Sunday Important to People Who Follow the Christian Faith?

Palm Sunday marks the start of holy week for Christians. This is the week leading up to Easter, Jesus' last week on Earth.

Christians feel happy because they are praising Jesus but also sad because they know it was only one week later that Jesus died.

Traditionally, in churches on Palm Sunday, people are given a cross made from a single palm leaf.

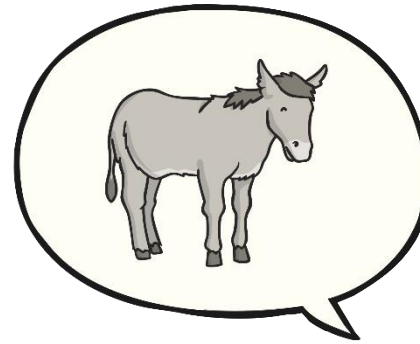

The True King

Jesus and his followers went to Jerusalem for the Passover Feast. Jesus told two of his followers to bring him a donkey and told them where to find it.

He also said, "Tell the people of Jerusalem your King is coming, he is gentle and riding on a donkey."

The followers did as Jesus asked, they found and bought the animal to Jesus. They lay their cloaks on its back and Jesus sat on them and rode on the donkey.

The True King

As Jesus rode the donkey towards Jerusalem, people cut branches from the palm trees and placed them and their cloaks on the ground in front of him.

They shouted, "Hosanna! Hosanna! Blessed is the King of Israel!"

The True King

When Jesus entered Jerusalem a large and excited crowd welcomed him and waved palm leaves. They shouted "Hosanna!" because they were so pleased to see him and believed his message.

Jesus went to the Temple where he healed the blind and lame people.

The True King

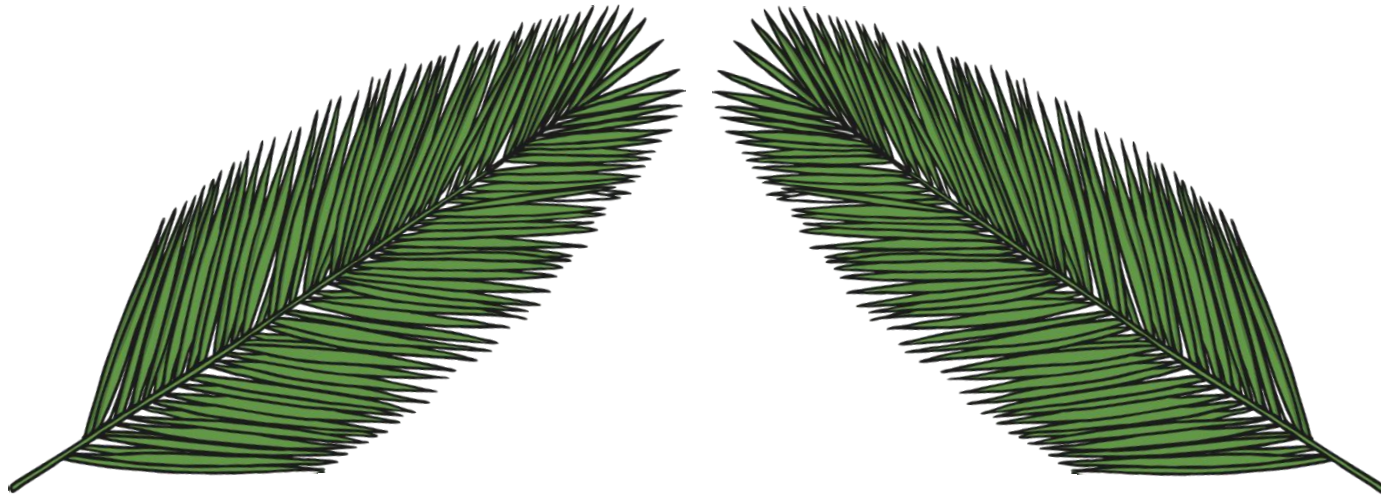

The leaders in Jerusalem did not like Jesus. They saw how many people were following him and they were angry and jealous.

The True King

Jesus understood that this was part of God's plan and it would be his last trip into Jerusalem.

People laid down palms in front of him as a sign that they believed his message and that he was King.

Maundy Thursday

What Is Maundy Thursday?

Maundy Thursday is the day before Good Friday. The word 'Maundy' means 'command'. It is part of an important week in the Christian religion called Holy Week.

The key days in Holy Week are:

- Palm Sunday;
- Maundy Thursday;
- Good Friday;
- Easter Sunday.

Talk to your partner and tell them anything you know about any of these days.

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

Jesus and his disciples were in Jerusalem. They were there to celebrate the Jewish festival of Passover, which celebrates when the Jews were freed from slavery in Egypt.

'Go and find somewhere we can celebrate together,' Jesus told Peter and John, two of his disciples.

Peter and John found an upstairs and the disciples prepared their Passover meal.

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

In those days, people wore sandals. People's feet got very dirty and dusty. In lots of houses, there would be a servant to wash guests' feet.

When they arrived at the room, the disciples were surprised to see Jesus holding a bowl of water and carrying a towel.

'What are you doing, Jesus?' one of them asked.

'I'm going to wash your feet,' Jesus replied. 'I'm doing this to be an example to you. You should serve and help each other, just as I am serving you.'

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

As they sat at the table, Jesus made a shocking announcement. 'One of you is going to betray me and hand me over to my enemies.'

Most of the disciples were distressed, for they loved Jesus very much.

Judas Iscariot was the one who would betray Jesus.

Today, we use the term 'Judas' to describe a traitor.

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

Jesus and his disciples then ate their Passover meal. This meal is now known as the Last Supper, because it was the last meal Jesus would have with his followers before his death.

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

After they had eaten, Jesus took a piece of bread and broke it. 'This bread is a symbol of my body, which is going to be broken.'

Then, he took a cup of wine and said 'This wine is a symbol of my blood.'

Christians remember this by having a special ceremony called Communion or the Eucharist, where they eat bread and drink wine.

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

Jesus then spoke to his disciples. 'I'm giving you a new commandment. You have to love each other the way I love you', he explained.

This command is why the day is called 'Maundy'.

What Happened on Maundy Thursday?

Jesus and some of the disciples then went to a garden called Gethsemane. Jesus spent time praying.

Suddenly, there was a loud commotion. A group of Roman soldiers had appeared in the garden and they were looking for Jesus.

From the crowd of soldiers, Judas appeared. He walked over to Jesus and kissed him. This was the sign to the soldiers who Jesus was. The soldiers arrested Jesus and took him away.

How Do Christians Remember Maundy Thursday?

Some churches have special feet washing services on Maundy Thursday.

Hundreds of years ago, our monarch used to wash poor people's feet on Maundy Thursday. Can you imagine the Queen washing your feet?

Maundy Money

Henry IV started a different tradition, where he gave gifts, the number of which matched his age.

Today, the monarch gives special coins called Maundy Money. These people are chosen because of acts of Christian service they have shown.

Each person receives two leather purses, one white and one red. The red purse contains normal coins, whereas the white purse contains special silver coins to match the age of the Queen.
