

Monday 28th February

LO: Words in context

Match the word to its meaning. Colour the word and definition in the same colour. Use the context of the word in the poem to help you.

Word	Definitions
weevils	way of working shirk	going away from what is considered normal or right modus operandi	to severely punish or tell someone off staccato	feeling of high excitement castanet	beetle with a long head that curves downward forming a snout tuxedo	weaken something castigation	to speed something up reverberation	short, separated sounds aberration	to swing steadily back and forth intoxication	wooden instruments that are held together in the hand and make a clicking sound expedites	to put off doing something enervation	the continuation of a sound after the source of the sound has been cut off procrastination	to escape from or avoid doing oscillation	suit of evening clothes for men – black jacket and trousers with a white shirt