Home Challenges – Otter and Squirrel class

Summer Term Two – Who were the Anglo-Saxons?

These are the optional home learning challenges. You may decide to try and complete all the home learning challenges! We are looking forward to seeing your homework completed to a high standard and thought about carefully.
Please ask if you need any help or resources. In addition, we will be sending home weekly Maths books and spellings and ask you to read and go onto TTRockstars and Numbots regularly.

You are an archaeologist who has dug up a box of Anglo-Saxon artefacts. What could be inside? Describe in a diary entry, using adjectives and similes what you have found.	Write your own word problems based in an Anglo-Saxon or Viking context. The word problems should include evidence of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division skills. (Make sure you include the answers too!)	Create a map of Britain showing the Anglo-Saxon kingdoms 	Create your own Sutton Hoo helmet/mask using whatever materials you have. You could use cardboard or paper Mache for example. You could also decorate it using tin foil or buttons. Look at the one found at Sutton Hoo for an example. (It can be any size).
Imagine you are an Anglo-Saxon when the Vikings invade. Write a short diary entry describing how you feel.	Write a message in Anglo Saxon runes. 	Create a visitor information brochure based on the famous Anglo Saxon burial site, Sutton Hoo. Remember to include images and a site map! https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/sutton-hoo/features/a-brief-introduction-to-sutton-hoo-	Create a PE warm up we could do as a class in a PE lesson. The warm up should have an Anglo-Saxon theme (Invaders/Settlers).
